2. what personal data do we collect and why?

When you access this website, information of a general nature is automatically collected. This information is collected in the server log file and includes the type of web browser, the operating system used, the domain name of your Internet service provider, your IP address and the like. This serves the following purposes:

- Ensuring a smooth connection of the website
- Ensuring a smooth use of our website
- Evaluation of system security and stability, and
- for other administrative purposes.

Your data will not be used to draw conclusions about you personally, but will only be statistically evaluated in order to optimize our Internet presence and the technology behind it.

3. storage period

The data is deleted as soon as it is no longer required for the purpose of collection, usually after the end of the respective session.

4. comments

When visitors post comments on the website, the data displayed in the comment form, the visitor's IP address, and the user agent string are collected to help detect spam. The email address may be passed anonymously to the Gravatar service to display your profile picture in the context of your comment.

5. media

Registered users uploading photos are asked to upload photos without EXIF GPS location to prevent location information extraction.

6. contact forms

The data you enter in contact forms is stored for the purpose of individual communication with you. The specification of a valid e-mail address and your name is required.

7. cookies

When writing a comment, consent can be given to the storage of name, e-mail address and website in cookies. These cookies are used for the convenience function, so that data does not have to be entered again for further comments. The cookies are stored for one year.
